

LEAVE THE DRIVING TO US

A Marathon coach has always been the coach of choice at your favorite destination resort, club event, or NASCAR[®] race. In an effort to assist in your search for more time to enjoy your coach, Marathon is excited to offer professional drivers to you so you can take advantage of the coaching lifestyle more frequently than you might otherwise. Whatever the reason or season, let us make all the arrangements to move your coach to a location where you'll benefit from it most.

Using the services of an experienced Marathon driver gives you more of that most precious commodity...time. Whether it's time to be with family, time to complete one last business project, or time to recover from surgery, a driver will get your coach where you want to go when you don't have the time—or the inclination—to get it there yourself.

Do you want to attend the Marathon Coach Club's Pikes Peak or Bust! rally in June, 2006 but your favorite niece graduates from college the weekend before in Key West, Florida? You can do both, if we transport your coach for you.

Our professionally trained drivers will not merely get your coach to its destination safe and sound, they will also prepare the coach for your arrival (fill water tanks, dump sewer tanks, etc.). Marathon's drivers have years of experience traveling America's roads and driving all makes of Marathon coaches. Some of our drivers might, in fact, know your coach as well as you do.

Have you always wanted to see the fall colors in Maine but you don't feel comfortable driving there from Tucson? Then make reservations with us to transport your coach for you.

One of the inexpensive conveniences in owning a Marathon coach is the option of hiring a driver for a special trip. Most trips will average in cost between $1.25 and $1.50 per mile, depending on airfare and fuel prices. So the 2,800-mile journey from Tucson, Arizona to Portland, Maine would run between $3,500 and $4,200. A driver will set you up in the park, and be ready to depart when you arrive.

If your heart is set on attending an event, but your heart is not into physically making the drive, give us a call and let us make the arrangements. Whether you are choosing not to drive somewhere, or you're simply not at ease behind the wheel anymore, let Marathon Coach help you extend the lifestyle, and continue the coaching friendships, that are part of your life.
