MARATHON COACH

Making the Impossible Reality in Business and Recreation

A Marathon Coach is more than a luxury motorcoach; it's a powerful networking tool, legendary office, corporate transportation, luxury accommodations and so much more. As the world's largest builder and distributor of luxury bus conversions, Marathon Coach has discreetly served the world's elite, including successful business professionals, sports figures, royalty, musicians and film stars, for decades. Our customers have the heritage of the time-tested Prevost conversion shell, overbuilt to withstand the rigors of constant mass transportation, with specifications created by our own engineers to maximize your needs and experience. Marathon's uncompromising goal is to provide a satisfying and personalized experience that meets the unique requirements of our exclusive clientele who desire coaches for corporate and personal use. With over 1,200 custom bus conversions having been built since the company's inception, our highly experienced team possesses the knowledge and resources to implement your unique vision.
